Commentary

Basis of preparation

The reviewed condensed consolidated results for the six months ended 31 January 2014 ('period under review') have been prepared by the Group Financial Director, John King, CA (SA), in accordance with IAS 34 – Interim Financial Reporting, the Financial Reporting Guides as issued by the Accounting Practices Committee of the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants, the South African Companies Act and the JSE Limited Listings Requirements.

Accounting policies

The accounting policies and methods of computation applied in the preparation of these reviewed condensed consolidated results for the six months under review, which are based on reasonable judgements and estimates, are in accordance with IFRS and are consistent with those applied in the preparation of the Group's Annual Financial Statements for the year ended 31 July 2013. New standards and interpretations as disclosed in the most recent annual financial statements, which became effective in the current financial year, have been adopted and there has not been any material impact on the group's financial results.

Review opinion

The condensed consolidated results for the six months ended 31 January 2014 have been reviewed by the Group auditors, Mazars (Gauteng) Inc., Registered Auditors and Chartered Accountants (SA), and their unmodified review report is available for inspection at the registered office of EOH.

Financial results

The board of directors of EOH ('the board') is satisfied with the performance for the six months under review. The statement of financial position is strong with substantial cash resources which ensures sustainability future growth. Revenue increased by 38,4% to R3 308 million and profit after tax is up by 49,4% to R244 million. The growth is attributable to a combination of both organic growth and recent acquisitions. Earnings per share ('EPS') and headline earnings per share ('HEPS') have grown by 30,3% and 33,9%, respectively, with cash increasing to R785 million.

Business combinations

During the six months under review, EOH's acquisitive strategy was to consolidate and complement its existing service offerings in its consulting, managed services, human capital and industrial technology businesses, and to grow in the public sector. EOH focused on strengthening its business in the financial services sector and positioning itself to further grow in Africa. Accordingly, the Group made several acquisitions (including Sybrin), totalling R756 million of which R468 million is payable in cash and the balance through the issue of equity instruments. The goodwill associated therewith is R499 million.

The cumulative assets acquired were R502 million of which the gross contractual amount of trade and other receivables was R101 million which approximated its fair value. The cumulative liabilities acquired were R246 million. The aggregated revenue of these businesses included in these results was R310 million, netting a profit before tax of R33 million.

Sybrin group

The Group acquired the share capital of the Sybrin group of companies, herein after referred to as 'Sybrin', with effect from 1 August 2013 for an amount of R296 million. Sybrin is a specialised developer of software for the financial services and other industry sectors. Sybrin's products include workflow software, payment, imaging and document management solutions.

The assets acquired were R200 million of which the gross contractual amount of trade and other receivables was R17 million which approximated its fair value. The liabilities acquired were R94 million. The revenue and profit before tax contributed by Sybrin for the current period was R99 million and R14 million respectively. The goodwill associated herewith is R177 million, relating mainly to anticipated synergies derived from EOH's acquisition strategy mentioned above.

Segmental reporting

EOH's revenue for the six months ended 31 January 2014 was derived from the provision of services (consulting systems implementation and integration and managed services), software (software sales and maintenance revenue) and infrastructure products.

	Services		Software		Infrastructure		Total

All areas of EOH's business operations have seen growth during the period under review with the revenue from services being the most significant revenue generator. Services revenue has increased to R2 357 million, a 42.0% increase over the previous comparative period. Software sales have increased to R423 million (increase of 20.8%). Infrastructure sales have also increased by 39.3% to R527 million. The overall operating margin is 10.1%.

Subsequent events and capital commitments

There have been no significant events since the end of the period under review. There was no significant capital expenditure authorised as at 31 January 2014.

Social responsibility and transformation

EOH understands that the inter-dependence of people, business and the community is inseparable and that a company is fundamentally a social structure. We are committed to the principle of action speaks louder than words and have therefore concentrated our efforts on ensuring that our social initiatives are both sustainable and useful to society.

Our Corporate Social Investment initiatives are therefore focused around education, particularly in the fields of maths and science and we have intensified our efforts around our job creating initiative.

Our Enterprise Development initiatives are aimed at developing black-owned ICT companies through financial and non-financial support, which includes the transfer of business skills.

EOH is certified as a Large Enterprise Level 2 Contributor with BEE Procurement Recognition of 156% as a Value Adding Vendor.

EOH's current black shareholding is 36.2%. 53% of EOH's staff and 66.7% of its board members are black.

Job creation initiative

EOH has continued and intensified its 'EOH Youth Job Creation Initiative'. We have invested in media campaigns and interacted with customers and business partners with the aim of encouraging them to recruit significant numbers of people on internship and learnership programmes. We have seen many organisations participating in these programmes, making a difference in the lives of many young people.

Learnership and intern programme

Another 600 young people are participating in EOH's 2014 learnership and internship programme. Most of the 620 trainees that completed EOH's 2013 programme were directly employed by EOH.

Future plans

EOH will expand its solutions and service offerings, strengthen its knowledge-based industry services and grow all areas of its business. Major growth areas are expected to be in Managed Services (including cloud, network solutions and mobility solutions), IT Management, Applications (including enterprise applications, information analytics and digitalisation), Industrial Technologies and Business Process Outsourcing. This will be achieved through organic growth, spearheaded by our strategic account initiatives, and strategic acquisitions.

EOH will increase its revenue from all areas of the Public Sector – National, Provincial, Local Authorities and State Owned Entities. EOH has the solutions, knowledge, skills and organisational ability to improve service delivery in this sector.

EOH will continue its foray into Africa and plans to derive more revenue from countries outside of South Africa by increasing its in-country presence and service offerings and through partnerships, joint ventures and acquisitions.

EOH is recognised for the quality of its people and its delivery capability. EOH has the people, the scale, the financial resources, the agility and the knowledge to continue to grow aggressively.

Directorate

During the period under review, Sandile Zungu was appointed as Independent Non-executive Chairman on 1 October 2013. Danny Mackay was appointed as a non-executive director on 1 November 2013. There have been no other changes to the board. At the AGM held on 11 February 2014, the directors who were eligible for re-election, being Prof Tshilidza Marwala, Lucky Khumalo and Tebogo Skwambane, were re-elected.
